

Sunday at Johnstown

Religious Services Held By All Denominations.

BUT LITTLE WORK WAS DONE.

The Loss of Life is Now Placed at Four Thousand One Hundred and Twenty-Five—Prompt Work in Rebuilding the Place—Next Sabbath a Day Set for a Special Thanksgiving.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 17.—Johnstown citizens have settled down to their routine life again. There was almost a total suspension of work in the Conemaugh valley yesterday and the day was spent very quietly. There was no improvement in the weather. During the early morning hours a heavy rain fell. About 9 o'clock the clouds rolled away, and the sun came out bright and strong and a few moments later the mercury registered 80 degrees.

Religious services were held by all denominations. Nearly all of the services, were from necessity, conducted in the open air. The sermons and addresses conciliated the people to be brave and keep up heart.

It is understood that polling places will be open here on Tuesday to give the residents a chance to vote on the constitutional amendment.

Removing the Debris.

About 150 men were working at the gorge to make a wider opening in the debris. Seven hoisting engines were working all day, and as a result the channel opening is now over twenty feet wide. A hundred other men were engaged in searching for dead bodies, and six were recovered during the day. None were identified. Late in the evening a large quantity of oil was poured over the debris below the stone railroad bridge and the torch applied. At 9 o'clock there was a sheet of flame twenty feet high and twenty yards in length along both banks of the river. A careful search for dead bodies was made before torches were applied. Gen. Hastings having issued orders that no human remains shall be burned where it is possible to avoid it.

Late last night rain began falling again, but it is not yet heavy enough to interfere with the fires now raging.

Less Than Five Thousand Lost.

Col. Rogers, who is in charge of the bureau of registration, reports to Gen. Hastings that the aggregate registration is 15,589 names. Twenty-five hundred survivors have left the locality without registering, and many others are being entertained in the vicinity who, because they were not affected by the flood, refuse to register, as they think they are not legitimately survivors. Col. Rogers estimates the survivors at 25,000, and says: "These figures are presumably approximately correct. Deducting these 25,000 survivors from the total population, leaves 4,125 lives lost. This estimate is as positive as it will probably ever be possible to give, as they are made up from careful research, house to house canvass and comparison with the proof sheets of the Johnstown directory, which was compiled just one month previous to the disaster, and is now in the hands of the printer.

Rapidly Rebuilding.

Gen. Hastings has determined that where people desire to build immediately, he will clear out their cellars and assist them to put up their buildings. A Chicago firm has been furnished money by the Chicago relief committee with which to send 150 houses here ready to place upon their foundations. These will begin to arrive in a day or two. To facilitate building schemes the Baltimore and Ohio railway and the Pennsylvania railway will construct special switches for the accommodation of the lumber trains which are now arriving. The state is to furnish carpenter tools, nails and all requisites for prompt work in rebuilding.

ONE OF THE CAMPS. (From a Photograph.)

Special orders have been issued and arrangements made for rushing the work of clearing away the debris with all possible dispatch. If expectations are realized, and a few days of favorable weather intervenes, there will be but little work left undone by next Saturday night. So confident is Gen. Hastings of this that he has expressed the determination of asking, during the week, that twenty-five ministers of various denominations visit Johnstown next Sabbath and hold special thanksgiving services for the saved from the late visitation.

Looking for Sickness. The delay in the arrival of Governor beaver's commission is creating a great deal of dissatisfaction to both citizens and those interested in the relief fund. The state board of health is putting in a great deal of its time halting reporters. It is said that its members and the physicians generally look for a large increase in sickness. This is why they are advising tenants to leave. Another reason is that many of the wrecked and damaged houses are to be fired and burned within a few days, while others are to be dynamited.

There are now about 240 men in the employ of the board of health. The majority of them are laborers employed in getting out and burning the bodies of animals, disinfecting the houses and cleaning up generally. The others are the physicians who are making the survey and are attending to the sick.

Viewing the Broken Dam.

PITTSBURG, June 17.—Sunday morning a special train over the Pennsylvania left this city for South Fork. On board were fifty newspaper men of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and a number of railroad and city officials. The purpose of the excursion was to view what remains of the wrecked dam and the washed out valley below. By the middle of next week a double track will have been completed to Altoona, and the "limited" will run again on its regular schedule. About 4,000 men are at work on the reconstruction of the road. The progress of the work has been almost phenomenal.

HEAVY HAIL STORM.

A Great Amount of Damage Done in Berkeley County, West Virginia.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., June 17.—A very heavy storm passed over the southwestern part of Berkeley county yesterday evening. A terrible gale of wind that did great damage, was followed by a terrific thunder storm. This was followed by a heavy hail storm that added greatly to the destructiveness. The hail stones lay in some places three or four inches deep. Crops and trees are ruined. Live stock was badly bruised and in some instances killed. Several houses and barns were wrecked by the wind. No loss of life has yet been reported. Owing to the lateness of the hour which the storm occurred, details are meagre.

A Cyclone in Ligonier, Indiana.

LIGONIER, Ind., June 17.—A terrific cyclone passed through this town Sunday afternoon, tearing down shade trees and unroofing houses along its path. The fine brick dwelling of J. M. Betts was nearly destroyed, and the new residence of W. E. Harding is a total wreck. The Ligonier hotel and a number of other buildings were unroofed. The bridge across Elkhart river was blown down, and hundreds of shade trees, fences, etc., were destroyed. The loss will be heavy.
