

A NEW SCARE. All Europe Greatly Excited by the Prospect of a Bloody Conflict.

AMINE ALREADY PRIMED. Only the Match is Needed to Embroider the Whole Continent.

RUSSIA'S POSITION IN THE MATTER.

The Little Balkan States are the Main Cause of the Trouble. The Czar is Constantly Endeavoring to Add to His Empire Territories—England Watching for an Opportunity—Gladstone's Great Work for the Cause of Home Rule in Ireland—Various Royal Families—The Shah's Visit.

The periodical war scare is again affecting Europe. This time, however, the situation seems more than usually belligerent. Only a little break is needed to send all of the nations flying at each other's throats.

Gladstone has been making a large number of speeches, and has aroused great enthusiasm for the Liberal cause. Great preparations are being made for the visit of the Shah of Persia.

On Monday, the 17th, of the month, the Shah of Persia will arrive here, being due July 1. Society women have already begun their innocent little intrigues with a view to securing him as a curiosity at their social functions, and the Government are not without their own shades.

Russia has shown an unusually pronounced desire to gobble up the Little Balkan States which act as a buffer between Austria, Turkey and Russia, and hence the row. The Serbian rebels, instead of looking after the interests of their nominal master, King Alexander, Milan's little son, have been openly quarreling with their master.

Austria is the chief of these, and the alarmists are predicting that she will have to pick a row with Russia directly or march into Serbia and threaten that little nation until she shall promise to remain neutral and independent.

Among the Shah's hosts in England, of whom we have mentioned several, must be included Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild, who will receive him at his country seat and at his house in Piccadilly.

The British lion is meanwhile borrowing a leaf from the back of his friend, the jackal, and prowling about waiting to pick the bones of the vanquished. Beside this Balkan trouble, there is a little Italian one, which is giving little Switzerland because she won't buy up Socialists and other troublesome characters to be put away where they can't worry Bismarck, Russia, for a wonder, and Germany, and Austria, and Germany, and we should see big and little continental powers at it, hammer and tongs.

The Shah, too, has had his lesson. After being fed and pampered in Russia he was dismissed with a stern warning to be careful about showing too great friendliness to England, which seems to have made him thoughtful. That other semi-civilized high mightiness, the poor, sublime Turk, always comes in for his share of anything unpleasant. Now he is being worried and bullied, too, because he has not discharged his duties as a Sultan, and is being worried about his bankrupt and in trouble with his wives has stirred up no pity in the restless Russian.

With all these complications on, and big armies everywhere waiting to fight, it seems as though the explosion ought to come sooner or later, but somehow or other these things calm down, and perhaps this one will, too. The most recent and most important of these is the one which has not been produced by any of the many recent scares.

All the markets of Europe are affected. Stocks are freely sold, and prices are rapidly shrinking. This proves that the money men of Europe, who possess a large percentage of Europe's money, believe a large crisis is coming, and that after all the false cries of "wool," the animal is here at last.

ROYAL HOLIDAYS. As opposed to war rumors it may be said that Bismarck is not going to resign, as usual, Emperor William is going to rest and fish on the Norwegian coast, and the Danish King is making his usual yearly preparation to receive his son-in-law, the Czar, with all his family. An individual made decidedly uncomfortable by it all is King Milan, who, tired of his divorce trouble, etc., resigned his job asking to escape public and to be quiet.

LIBERAL CONFIDENCE. The Grand Old Man Announces a Great Deal of Business. Gladstone has finished a week of traveling, speech making and general hard work, which, for a man who is 80 years old, about beats the record.

THE GREAT TURK CASE. Lord Durban Will Not be Able to Make His Point Against Sir George Chetwynd.

THE HORROR OF THE KEYSTONE STATE. The most correct and finest finished photographs of the principal views of the great disaster are contained in a set presented with every purchase of not less than $5 at Kaufmann's this week.

THE HORROR OF THE KEYSTONE STATE. The most correct and finest finished photographs of the principal views of the great disaster are contained in a set presented with every purchase of not less than $5 at Kaufmann's this week.

THE HORROR OF THE KEYSTONE STATE. The most correct and finest finished photographs of the principal views of the great disaster are contained in a set presented with every purchase of not less than $5 at Kaufmann's this week.

THE HORROR OF THE KEYSTONE STATE. The most correct and finest finished photographs of the principal views of the great disaster are contained in a set presented with every purchase of not less than $5 at Kaufmann's this week.

THE HORROR OF THE KEYSTONE STATE. The most correct and finest finished photographs of the principal views of the great disaster are contained in a set presented with every purchase of not less than $5 at Kaufmann's this week.

A CHAMPION CRIMINAL. His Career Will Live in History as a Most Phenomenal One—The Greatest Victim of Fiction Far Surpassed—His Fate Now Settled.

LEPERS IN LONDON. An Attempt to Establish a Memorial to Father Damien Meets With Decided Opposition—The Needs of Science—A Disgusting Exhibition.

LONDON, June 15.—[Copyright.]—A Belgian murderer named Hoyos, now undergoing a term of imprisonment for forgery he went to France, where for years he lived a mysterious life, constantly changing his name. In 1885 he married a woman named Marie. He was a man of enormous physical strength, and there is little reason to doubt that he killed the woman with the strange weapon, but Hoyos was acquitted in the absence of actual proof.

The following year he killed a Belgian judge, but again escaped punishment, owing to technicalities. On a term of imprisonment for forgery he went to France, where for years he lived a mysterious life, constantly changing his name. In 1885 he married a woman named Marie. He was a man of enormous physical strength, and there is little reason to doubt that he killed the woman with the strange weapon, but Hoyos was acquitted in the absence of actual proof.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

PERFUMES' CURIOSITY. Social Preparations Being Made for the Visit of the Shah to London—His Absolute Power When at Home—A Chance for an Entree.

HOW THEY WILL VOTE. Ten Thousand Philadelphia Working Men Declare Their Sentiments ON THE PROHIBITION QUESTION. Sixty Per Cent of the Entire Number Positively Affirm That.

THEY WILL OPPOSE THE AMENDMENT. Newspaper Estimates That Indicate a Big Majority for the Liquor Men.

A systematic canvass, made among 10,144 workmen of Philadelphia, illustrates in a striking manner the popular sentiment on the amendment question. Sixty per cent of the voters polled are against prohibition, 20 per cent favor it, 5 per cent are doubtful, and 5 per cent will not vote at all.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—During the past week the Record has made a careful poll of the voters in many of the large industrial establishments of the city on the prohibition amendment, and to-day it gives the result of its work to its readers. Ten thousand one hundred and forty-four voters were polled by the Record reporters. Of that number 6,096 said they would vote against it, 2,019 are doubtful and 544 will not vote.

BLAINE'S VICTORY. The Successful Conclusion of the Samoan Treaty Was Due to His Bold Stand—The Status of America and Samoa Under the New Agreement.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Although the text of the Berlin compact, now on its way to Washington in the custody of Mr. Phelps, is not yet published, its basis has evidently been allowed to become known as it is ascertained the popular opinion upon the subject in Germany, England and the United States, this opinion shows that our country has achieved a great success. This result is more due to the firm and inexorable attitude of Mr. Blaine than to any political leanings of the German government.

NEARLY CLEANED UP. One of Johnston's Boroughs Assuming Its Normal Appearance. THE WORK DONE IN KERNVILLE. In a Few Weeks Everything There Will be in Excellent Shape.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the flood. From the upper part, called Grubtown, to South street, nearly all traces of the overflow have been removed, and every place is easily accessible, but below that section the streets are impassable. The heavy rains of the past two days have played sad havoc with some of the thoroughfares, and turned the streets into dirt, bricks and stones in pools of slush knee deep.

KERNVILLE, June 15.—This borough of Johnston is rising up out of the debris as fast as the united efforts of 1,000 men under the State contractors can clear away the wreck. Clean streets and repaired houses here and there show the rapid progress made in the past week, but it will take some time before the town will look anything like it did before the